President's Letter

April is the month where many of our snowbirds begin their travels north. I want to remind them to make sure their homes are ready for summer before they set out. Check to see that there isn't any mold or dirt on your home's siding and pull those weeds that thrive during the summer months. Is your carport clean and clutter around your home removed? Do you have any items in your yard that the wind could relocate? Do you have a neighbor, family member or friend checking on your home in your absence? Do we have up to date emergency phone numbers on file? I wish you safe travels and a wonderful summer. See you in the fall!

Those of you who use the pool may have noticed the new sign by the shower. We still have one or two residents that seem to think our showers at the pool are for bathing. Showers are to be used only for rinsing. Soap and soap products are prohibited. And yes, though not a state requirement the hot water is back on.

At the last meeting the board agreed to replace the carpeting on the stage in the clubhouse. Sal will be heading up this effort and will solicit bids to have it replaced. Prior to having new carpet installed the old carpet will be removed and Sal will inspect the wood underneath to see if any boards need to be replaced. Thank you, Sal!

I want to thank everyone for attending the annual meeting. If you missed it, here are your new board members:

John Monser – President

Sal Chieffo – Vice President

Tim Farmer – Treasurer

Richard Persing – Secretary

Be safe!

Social Club
Spring

Goodbye

March was a great month with Life Legacy Journal workshop, St Patty's Day dance and another fun evening for Music at the pool with Brad and Chuck, plus, all the other great activities that happen here each and every week.

As always, we aim to have more fun events for everyone in April. This month you won't want to miss the Aloha party with great music from the Ruckkus band & Pizza. Make sure to put it on your calendar of must do's. We are also going to continue with our workshops and classes. This month we are planning another painting class. This time we will be painting Dragonflies. Be sure to sign up. We are looking for more talented people to step up and share your craft with us.

We have stored up some great memories this past year. I am so grateful to have been able to serve this community as Social Club President. It has been an honor. It's truly the spirit of this community that makes it so great. The people that volunteer are the true heart of what goes on with all the activities. At this month's Social Club meeting I will be passing the rein on to Dale Mathurin and I am certain that this coming year will be a fun packed and energetic year. I will still be around volunteering where I can and who knows, maybe I'll be back as President again someday. My philosophy is & always will be, to keep the momentum going by allowing others to step up to the plate with new ideas and a fresh new outlook on what's to come. My hope is that we continue to bring new ideas and fresh new faces into the workings of the Gull Aire Village Social Club.

I want to Thank Every person that stepped up to the plate to help at all the functions. I could start to name names but I'm certain I'd miss someone and that just wouldn't be right. The numbers of you are many. Some of you in the limelight and many behind the scenes. But no one is not important.

One of our outstanding citizens Ken Sidorewich gave me a great quote to add to this month's newsletter "Volunteers don't get paid because they're worthless. Volunteers don't get paid because they are priceless!!! (Sherry Anderson Arkansas Director of Health & Human Services). And that my friends is exactly how I feel. Each and every one of you is PRICELESS!!!

I hope to see you all at the next function, and yes, I will still visit you at your tables at the dances just to say hi and wish you a fun time. You are all special to me.

Thank you
TC Hite, Retiring President.

Spring is in the air! Warm weather, long hours in the sun, fun at the pool, and new growth on your flowers and trees.

Yes, springtime is for change. This also means a change in your Social Club Board. I would like to welcome your new Board members for 2024 – Dale Mathurin, President – Peggy Allison, Vice President – Kathy Marro, Secretary – Diana Lutch, Treasurer. I look forward to working with this new board.

I would also like to thank TC Hite for all her hard work as your President in the past year. TC and her fellow board members, Peggy Allison, Kathy Marro, and Diana Lutch, worked tirelessly bringing you new and different entertainment for your enjoyment. Their work was made possible with the help of all you energetic volunteers.

April 2nd will be our Social Club meeting when your new board will be installed. Our annual Aloha Party, featuring your favorite Ruckkus Band, will be on the 6th, followed by Art Class on the 9th, Vet's Club on the 16th, and a Comedy Act on the 20th. In addition, you will have your Koffee Klatches, Bunco, Bingo, Chair Volleyball, and Game Night to name a few, to keep you busy and entertained.

Keep checking the Bulletin Board and the Official Gull Aire Social Club Facebook page for any changes, additions or deletions.

Looking forward to seeing you at our functions.

Sincerely,
A Dale Mathurin, Incoming President

BOCCE BALL

We have organized play on Monday and Thursday. For those not familiar we need 16 players each day, you have a choice of playing at 1:00PM on Monday or Thursday or both. If the teams are filled there will be a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board for anyone that would like to be a substitute. If one of the teams has an opening, you also can sign up to be a regular on one of the 2 days and a substitute the other. You do not have to find your own partner, each day before we play, we draw numbers, this will tell you which court you will be playing on and who your partner will be.

We look forward to a fun and exciting season!!!!

Note from the Voice: Many of you know Rich Regan as our new shed manager and all-around helper in Gull Aire. I am pleased to be able to introduce another side of Rich as he has agreed to periodically submit some of his thoughts and poetry, under the pen name "Reishi", to be published in the Voice. I have often asked for input from the many talented individuals that live among us for submissions of personal stories, book reviews, poetry, photography or anything of an entertaining nature. Many thanks to Rich for answering that call and I now challenge you to do likewise. We will contact you to discuss any submission before printing as there may be space restraints and any copy right issues. Please enjoy!

Vickie Mills, Gull Aire Voice

On February 1st, 2024, in our Gull-Aire village clubhouse, Randy Collinsworth and others led a memorial of those beloved folks who passed from this life during 2023. This memorial event was peaceful and loving, coupled with sadness and grief for the loss of loved ones. As Randy put feelings to words, we became aware of our Shared Grief, our mutual feelings of loss and aloneness mixed with the gift of mutual connection. With open hearts our sadness and grief lightened through our mutual connection

Here is the poem which came forth following our memorial.

Rich Regan

"In memory"

To a lighter and fuller and beautiful domain
Open and lovely, heaven by name.

The further we go, together as one
Needs disappear as love becomes fun.

And why not we say, this opening so new
For the lives we just lived are no longer in view.

Just truth in it's glory unified as light
And universal love, from healing insight.

Our hearts now open, streaming with Love with more love below and more love above.

Only soul beauty, carries life's truth
Is what we now are, innocence in youth.

So we go beyond, in love quite so fine
We now know that we, are life quite divine.

THANK YOU

I would like to Thank all the wonderful people who live in Gull Aire Village who came out to help with Granny's Attic. A great group of people showed up to help with putting up the tents for the furniture, moving all the tables and chairs, unloading the sheds, making pick-ups at homes, setting all the items on the tables and pricing them, everyone who donated items to sell and donations for our raffle and cheer baskets, and the ones who showed up Saturday for the sale. A BIG THANK YOU to Phyllis Crivelli who spent hours and hours getting all the gift cards and donations from different businesses.

Diana Lutch
 Granny's Attic Chairperson

Gull Aire Social Club would like to Thank the following businesses for their donations to our Granny's Attic Raffle Baskets:

Craft Street Kitchen, Eve's Family Restaurant, T & T Nails , Marco's Pizza, Munchies Pet Food, J Goody Café Bakery, Shaker & Peel Restaurant ,Eastlake Café, T C Nails & Spa , Einstein's Bagels, Mandolas Restaurant , Felice's Deli, Joe's Produce , and Country Pizza

From your shed manager -Rich Regan

Y'all know Granny's Attic is a premier winter fund raising activity. But did you know that this event is our biggest and most profitable! I'd like to shed some light (no pun intended) on this event and it's importance.

Each year Granny's Attic brings us all together as a community sharing and working together for our common good. Funny but there's a catch... sometimes we take for granted what we have and don't realize what we have till it's gone! Let's support Granny's attic and all our community activities for this and many other important reasons. Here's how 😊 Donate...All your items donated are the resources for Granny's Attic's success. Our Storage is limited but not for smaller items. Please be willing to hold on to larger items till fall when we put up added temporary storage for Granny's attic. Also our woman/manpower goes up in the fall with the return of our precious snowbirds. Volunteers are always needed. So thank you for your donations and being part of the success that Granny's attic brings.

Here are some names and phone numbers of those who may be of assistance:

Remember...Items must be clean and in good shape. No major appliances, paints or solvents, gas grills, mattresses, or clothing.

Have a blessed summer and stay healthy. Aloha!

Wisdom Bold

In our kindness we might find
 A joyful heart and peace of mind

A kinder thought, a sweetened way
 A helping hand for life this day.

And as we serve it's life supreme
 Unswerving faith creates our dream.

Love does flow from a heart made well
 Transforming self we ring life's bell.

And from the mind our truth is told
 Supreme power and wisdom bold.
